

Graduate Student Rising Star Awards

The purpose of these awards is to recognize graduate students who show exceptional promise at the outset of their program. These graduate students will have the ability to serve as role models to fellow graduate students through their vision, determination, and academic contributions. Three awards valued at $500 each may be conferred annually. These awards are funded by the Graduate Student Support Fund (GSSF).

GSA Policy: GSA Recognition Awards and Adjudication Criteria

O.POL.1 General

O.POL.1.1 There is no maximum number of GSA Recognition Awards an individual can apply for each year, but they must meet the application eligibility requirements for the award, and each award applied for must have a complete application package. GSA members can receive no more than one (1) GSA Recognition Award each year.

O.POL.1.2 An individual can be nominated or self-nominated for the same GSA Recognition Award only once each year. The first nomination received will be the one adjudicated.

O.POL.1.3 Current Directly-Elected Officers and members of the GSA Awards Selection Committee are not eligible to be nominated or self-nominated for GSA Recognition Awards.

O.POL.1.4 An individual can receive no more than one (1) GSA Recognition Award each year.

O.POL.1.5 A GSA Graduate Student Group or individual can receive the same GSA Recognition Award no more than two (2) times.

O.POL.1.6 Any individual (excluding associate members) who was a GSA member at any time in which the GSA Recognition Awards nomination period was open is eligible for the self-nominated GSA Recognition Awards.

O.POL.1.7 Late and/or incomplete nominations and extraneous documents will not be accepted.

Eligibility

Nominees must be graduate students in the first year or year and a half of their graduate program at the University of Alberta.

Adjudication Criteria

The Graduate Student Rising Star Awards will be adjudicated on the basis of four (4) criteria:

- a. Excellence in teaching and scholarly or creative activities;
- b. Leadership in teaching and research;
- c. Overall contribution to the University community; and
- d. Quality as a graduate student role model

Each criterion will be ranked on a scale of 1-5 (5 being high) and then added to determine the total rank for the nominee.

Nomination Requirements

Self nominated.

A completed nomination package must include ONLY the following components and no others:

- a. Two signed letters of support that address how the nominee meets the criteria
 - One of the letters must be written by the nominee's graduate studies supervisor
 - One of the letters must be written by a fellow graduate student and must describe the nominee's abilities and qualities as a graduate student role model
- b. A condensed CV outlining the significance and duration of service activities undertaken during the nominee's current degree program. Maximum four (4) pages
- c. Enrollment Verification Document. This can be obtained from Bear Tracks.
- d. Any additional questions posed on the online application must be fully completed

Incomplete Nomination Packages

Incomplete packages will not be accepted or adjudicated. Nomination packages will be considered incomplete without any of the components listed above and will not be accepted or adjudicated.

Policy and Procedure

- a. Nominations will be reviewed by the GSA staff for eligibility and completeness
- b. According to its mandate, the GSA Awards Selection Committee (GSA ASC) "is responsible for selecting the recipients of the Council-approved GSA Recognition Awards" and "the GSA ASC may decide not to give out an award in a particular category if a qualified candidate is not identified" (Section O: GSA Recognition Awards, GSA Policy, GSA Standing Committees, GSA Awards and Selection Committee, Sections O.POL.5.1 and O.POL.5.2).
- c. Results of the adjudication will be sent to nominees via email.
